Old Business

A presentation on the finished Eagle Scout project by Shane Dunn on the new town hall signage was given to the town and he was thanked by the board for a great job.

New Business

Steve Blair gave an update on Twin Lakes. They have not met in a while, the park area is staying clean, all the trees planted have survived. They will be making some changes to the park rules and will be having new signage made to reflect them.

Supervisor Guzzi reported that the newsletter that was done for the town, was mailed out to town residents. There are additional ones left at the Town Clerk's office for anyone who did not receive one and would like a copy.

Representatives from Northern Dutchess Paramedics spoke on the need for residents to have their 911 numbers displayed and that there are many properties that are lacking these, making it difficult should they have a call at a property that does not have a number displayed and can't be easily located. They will be making a flyer up to distribute that has information on it for residents to get number display signs made.

The summer youth program sign ups are done and the Heath Dept did their inspection of the buildings and passed them. The town handyman has been keeping the area running smoothly.

Groundskeeper Joe Gatti planted some bushes and is keeping the areas around the town hall in good shape
