Old Business

Deputy Supervisor Yandik gave an update on Twin Lakes and said that a $500 grant through the Columbia Land Conservancy was awarded for the water quality program at North Twin Lake. The Town is working on a pass program for town residents for using the North Twin Lakes park area for summertime. It would be free for town residents and there would be a lottery for non residents to get a pass for $165 for the season and another lottery for $25 seasonal passes for fishermen to be able to fish at certain times of the day. The process is still being worked on and has not been finalized yet.

New Business

The Town board discussed the outdated phone system for the Town Hall building and that requests were sent out for an updated system.

Resolution # 46

Motion to approve the lowest quote for updating the Town Hall phone system

A motion was made by Councilperson Shumsky, seconded by Councilperson Bender to approve granting the installation of a new phone system for the Town Hall to the lowest quoted provider.
